"Those who can make you believe absurdities can make you commit atrocities." - Voltaire

A gas tax to fund infrastructure bill is expected to be introduced into Alabama legislature in 2019. County commissioners were told last week by ACCA executive chairman Sonny Brasfield that they need to go home and sell this proposal to the voters. Now we like Sonny, he is nice and he is smart, but we don't always agree with him. Sure the commissioners should support the bill, as they will get some money for road paving and bridge work. But the lawmakers are the ones who will word the bill and already there is argument over how to divide the new money. Part will go to the state for state highways. The balance will be divided between the 67 counties. Here is where a big rub has surfaced. The original suggestion was to divide the funds into 67 even piles. However the larger counties (like Jefferson) feel they have more roads and their needs are greater so they should have a larger percentage. There is no answer that will please all of Alabama so regardless of the rah-rah by county commissioners, it is not a sure thing. Gas taxes were last increased in 1992.

It is clear that a huge segment of the American public does not believe the government officials when they warn about global warming. To say we had the "truth" and/or a solution for the misgivings of our friends and neighbors would be a grossly misleading statement. However, we believe that someone needs to get to the bottom of this issue of mistrust. If it is a reality, it is truly serious. If not, we need to move on to other pressing issues. We lean to believing it is a fact, but maybe a natural cycle that is speeding up due to human existence and/or sloppy and careless doings. To ignore it completely would put us in the position of an old world philosopher who wasn't sure about the existence of God, but noted something to the effect that the possibility of Him being real was so profound He was too important to ignore. You could apply this to the results of any major global warming.

It should be done without a reminder, but we are all creatures of habit. Our readers are urged to use special care when driving around the U. S. 84 Bypass, especially at the intersections. There is lots of confusion among drivers and a bit of extra caution on everyone's part can save lots of troubles and maybe a few lives. Therefore enter and exit these intersections with extra care and caution.

Donald Trump to resign the presidency soon? Some news forecasters are predicting he will walk away from the position in the next few weeks. Our first reaction was an open laugh! First, he loves the authority and thrives on the ups and downs. He has (successfully) spent his whole life creating and profiting from such environments. Secondly, if he were to resign, there is no way he could use his powers to protect other family members. However after listening to the logic behind the prediction, we have second thoughts. It is easy to envision even Donald Trump working a deal with the federal prosecutors to not prosecute his family, including him, if he just steps down and promises to never, ever run for political office again. Now, we still don't expect it to happen 'cause it just is not his nature, but after thinking it out, we understand the logic of stuff like that being in the dreams of lots of anti-Trump Americans.

Alabama duck hunters hope for repeat of last season

By DAVID RAINER
Alabama Department of Conservation and Natural Resources

The snowstorm that skirted just north of the state recently should be good news for Alabama's duck hunters.

The waterfowl seasons in Alabama are always weather-dependent. If it's cold and snowy north of us, the birds will migrate in significant numbers into Alabama. Without the cold or precipitation to cover their food sources, the birds won't make it this far south.

Seth Maddox, migratory gamebird program coordinator with the Alabama Wildlife and Freshwater Fisheries (WFF) Division, said duck numbers should be increasing soon even though the numbers were down when the annual aerial survey took place the week before the season opened.

"We were down a little bit on our preseason counts," Maddox said. "We had a few cold fronts and a lot of rain. That spread the birds out a lot. I think it pushed some of the early migrators further south."

"That left us with a decent amount of birds, but not a good number for opening weekend. Most of the birds are just a little north of us. I hope with another cold front or two, it will push birds into Alabama. We got a small push from that snowstorm, but I hope we get a larger push soon."

Maddox said the long-term weather forecast bodes well for waterfowl hunters in Alabama.

"It's shaping up to be similar to last year," he said. "They're predicting several disturbances up in the Arctic region with some polar vortexes, which will give us some cold weather. Last year, we had some sub-freezing temperatures, below average temperatures, for a week or so throughout the season. I think that's going to end up giving us a season similar to last season."

That would be great news for waterfowlers, considering the harvest for the 2017-2018 season was up 85 percent over the similar period a year earlier.

"That's a significant increase," Maddox said. "We had about 14 days during the season where temperatures stayed below freezing. That cold weather and snow north of us really pushed birds into Alabama."

Maddox said the wood duck harvest last season was especially high, which means a good many woodies came from the north.

"The cold weather pushed lots of wood ducks down," he said. "We get some migration of wood ducks from northern states every year. Sometimes our wood ducks will move further south, but most of the time they hang tight here in Alabama."

"What we do see, when we see a lot of wood duck migrants from the north, a lot of our males will pair up with northern females. The males will follow the females back to their breeding grounds in the spring because the females go back to the same breeding grounds every year."

Maddox said the banding program that the WFF conducts annually on wood ducks gives him the data needed to come to those conclusions.

"A lot of our male wood ducks get killed north of us," he said. "For example, I had one that I banded in Jackson County a couple of years ago that was killed in Ontario (Canada) earlier this year. We had one of our males killed in Minnesota as well."

Back to the preseason survey, the survey team looks for dabblers (mallards, gadwall, teal) and divers (canvasbacks, redheads, scaup) during the flyovers.

Gadwalls led the count with 12,000 observed statewide, although the survey covers only a small portion of the state. The mallard count totaled 1,500, followed by 1,000 green-winged teal. The total dabbler count was 15,651.

The diver count turned out to be a pleasant surprise with 7,000 birds counted, which is higher than the five-year average.

"There were a bunch of canvasbacks here early," Maddox said. "Ringnecks led the way, as they usually do. We also had scaup and redheads."

"The migrant geese don't show up until the middle of December, so you might be able to get a Christmas goose here soon."

Mike Carter, a renowned fishing guide on the Tennessee River lakes, switches to waterfowl hunting in north Alabama this time of year and keeps an eye on the duck population by regularly looking for ducks at the Wheeler National Wildlife Refuge. Carter is expecting a big increase in duck numbers any day now.

"It seems the ducks got here a little quicker last year," Carter said. "Last year was great. I think we're going to get that at some point. We've got flooded timber and buckbrush, so they've got plenty of places to feed and find cover. We've got a lot more water this year, so I think it's going to be even better when the ducks finally make their move."

The most likely duck spots in Alabama include the Tennessee River basin in north Alabama, the Mobile-Tensaw Delta in south Alabama as well as the Lake Eufaula area and west central Alabama in the Demopolis area and other lakes on the Tombigbee River and Millers Ferry on the Alabama River near Camden.

"The number of licensed duck hunters in Alabama seems to be holding steady around 30,000 for the last 3 to 4 years," Maddox said. "That's a good thing."

For the Mobile-Tensaw Delta/W.L. Holland Waterfowl Management Zone in south Alabama, one new restriction is in place for the current season. The use of gasoline motor prohibition zone that was in effect for Big Bateau Bay last year has been expanded to include Bay Grass. A no-hunting refuge zone remains in effect in the area west of the Apalachee River, occupying the area between the Causeway (Battleship Parkway) and I-10 to its intersection.

Hunting in the Waterfowl Management Zone is closed on Mondays and Tuesdays. Hunting is allowed from a half hour before sunrise until 1 p.m. on Wednesdays through Sundays during the season.

Coffee County School System receives excellence in innovation & safety award

The Coffee County School System recently accepted an award for Excellence in Innovation and Safety for County School Systems at the 2018 School Safety Summit for Alabama in Orange Beach, Ala.

The award was presented to Kevin Killingsworth, superintendent of the school system. Coffee County Schools has shown great leadership and vision in utilizing the nSide School Safety Platform in a multitude of safety initiatives through the district. District leadership has integrated nSide into all safety aspects of the district from campus maps, emergency operations plans, bus routes, live fleet tracking, and in day-to-day maintenance activities.

The district has integrated their online HVAC system into the nSide School Safety Platform, where they can remotely control thermostats in rooms and monitor energy use throughout the school. Seeing and controlling all systems from one platform has been a great convenience.

Coffee County Schools has also been a pilot program for the nSideAlerts program, which allows an internal alert system for all faculty, staff, and administrators throughout the school to conduct drills and in case of real emergencies. These text and email messages flow to the faculty, staff, and administrators, allowing them to make instant decisions on what actions need to be taken for the safety of all concerned.

The Gen. Edmond Winchester Rucker 2534 Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy® and Rucker's Belles and Beaux 968 Children of the Confederacy® presented an "Honor and Educator" award recently. The award was presented to Tammie Evans, a 4th grade teacher at Straughn Elementary School. Pictured above are the award presenters Pat Richter and Thomas Clark with Mrs. Evans.

Local UDC chapter honors educator with award

The Gen. Edmond Winchester Rucker 2534 Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy® and the Coffee County Rangers 911 of the Sons of Confederate Veterans recently held their annual joint Christmas party and chili supper.

Prior to the dinner, an award was presented by Rucker's Belles and Beaux 968 Children of the Confederacy®. The presentation was made by Pat Richter, Rucker CofC director and Thomas Clark, president of Rucker's Belles and Beaux.

In 2017-2018 an award was established to "Honor an Educator." It is presented to educators who may or may not be members of the United Daughters of the Confederacy.

This award is to honor those who go beyond the scope of their job to further educate children about the truth of the South in the 1840s to 1860s, the War Between the States and Reconstruction. Educators can be in public, private or homeschools. The educator must have a minimum of five years teaching experience and must be over the age of 25.

The pin that is given for this service is simply a stack of books of different colors representing different sources of education and learning. The books are surrounded by the words "Children of the Confederacy" above and below and "Honor an Educator" on either side the words are on red banners representing one of the CofC main colors.

The recipient of this award was Tammie Evans, a graduate of Troy University and a fourth-grade teacher at Straughn Elementary School. She received the award for her many contributions to education.

Evans has taught Alabama history for the past seven years including Confederate history. Each year her students celebrate Alabama Day with many activities learning the history of the founding of Alabama. She encourages her students to enter essay and coloring contest sponsored by the Alabama Division UDC.

Evans is a member of the Thomas Randolph Thomasson 2471 UDC Chapter and is responsible for her Chapter presenting 29 Jefferson Davis Silver Medals to elementary school students whose essays have won first-place at the Alabama Division level. She has presented after school programs on Gen. Robert E. Lee and Gen. T. J. "Stonewall" Jackson. She has also sponsored trips for her students to historical sites such as Fort Toulouse in Wetumpka, the First White House of the Confederacy, the Alabama Department of Archives and History, the governor's mansion and the Alabama State Capital to encourage their interest in Alabama and southern history.

Evans' students have also collected money and donated to the conservation of Confederate flags at the Alabama State Archives and History. In addition, she has planned and assisted with Children of the Confederacy events such as Christmas in the South, Confederate Memorial Day and CofC conventions.

Rucker's Belles and Beaux 968 was indeed honored to present this outstanding educator with the "Honor an Educator" award.

After the presentation, those in attendance enjoyed fun and fellowship by playing "Dirty Santa" and singing Christmas carols.

GOD'S GOOD NEWS FOR ALL PEOPLE

If you are attending Christmas Eve services on Monday evening, you will likely hear a reading from the second chapter of Luke's Gospel. In this telling of the birth of Christ, there is the story of the shepherds hearing the announcement from the angels as they (the shepherds) kept their flocks by night. The angels brought them great news for all people. They told them that their savior was born that night in The City of David. The story continues with the shepherds going to worship the newborn king and then spreading the joyous news. Aside from Mary, Joseph, Baby Jesus and an angel, I personally think that shepherds are the next most relevant figures at The Nativity. I'm not sure all people would agree...

A few years ago I bought a fair trade, wooden Nativity scene for my kids. I was quickly sold on the set because it seemed unbreakable. Quickly I realized how strange that set was because there were no shepherds included, only The Holy Family, The Magi and a couple of animals. Why were the shepherds left out? I quickly set to studying why shepherds would have been left out. I came upon articles suggesting that shepherds are social pariahs in many countries, including some countries that make these fair trade goods. Perhaps this was the reason, or one reason, that there were no shepherds in our set. I had always been taught that the shepherds of Jesus' day were some of the ignored or even outcast of their day, but surely that is not the case anymore. Surely the world is now a better place, a more accepting place than 2,000 years ago. In this season we sing songs about "let every heart prepare Him room" and "Away in a manger, no crib for a bed..." We often forget that the details of these familiar biblical stories are meant to speak on several levels. We forget that the people that God included in the story are relevant. In this part of the story, God chose to go tell perhaps the best news ever to the most lowly people of the area.

Just like the shepherds were left out of my Nativity set, who are we excluding from God's story today? How have we marginalized, outcast and labeled certain groups of people as unworthy to bow at the manger or approach The Cross? As you hear The Christmas Story this year, remember, this is Good News for ALL people!

 This Day

The angel announced, "Unto you is born this day in the City of David a saviour" [Luke 2:11]. Of course, we do not know exactly what day this day was. We are not certain that Jesus was born on December 25, or, for that matter, in the month of December.

And, that, of course, is not really important. We have set aside a day to honor Christ's birth. What is important is that we use the day to honor Him.

We call this particular day Christmas; however, British writer Dorothy Sayers once suggested that we should call it Wishmas. She claimed that in fact this had already occurred and that Wishmas had superseded the commemoration of Christmas.

It was marked, she said, by "the exchange of cards, bearing wishes for the 'recipient's' material prosperity and frequently adorned with ice, snow, holly, and other polar symbols." She also noted that the day was characterized by "factitious heartiness and family friction."

Is it really true that the holiday known as Christmas is more correctly described as Wishmas? Has it lost its spiritual and Christian significance? No doubt it has for many.

On liquor company erected a huge billboard at Christmas time right across the street from a church. The billboard showed the picture of a bottle of whiskey and declared, "The Spirit of Christmas!" If we cannot turn Wishmas back to Christmas nationally, or even locally, we can certainly do so in our own hearts and homes. We can make certain that at least for us and our families, "this day" -indeed, everyday- will always honor Christ.

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year

ESCC Adult Education director receives statewide recognition

Dr. Terri Dunn, director of Adult Education at Enterprise State Community College (ESCC), recently received the Alabama Adult Education Directors' Association "Hall of Fame Award" at the Alabama Community College Association (ACCA) Conference in Mobile, Ala.

The Hall of Fame award honors individuals who have made distinguished contributions to adult education in Alabama and preserves the significant legacies of those honored on a permanent exhibit.

"It is always nice to be recognized for your work and leadership, but it really means a lot when the recognition comes from other adult education practitioners who equally deserve the honor," said Dunn. "But honestly, my staff and instructors are the real hall of famers. It's what they do each day to carry out the mission and vision of the ESCC Adult Education Program that makes our program a success. I really do have a great team and have been fortunate to work with administrators who believe in what we do and support our program."

Dr. Dunn was also inducted as the incoming President of the Alabama Adult Education Director's Association at the ACCA Conference. Her term will expire in November 2019.

Views From The Pressbox

By Ricky Mularz, Sports Editor

Christmas is just around the corner and our grandson Lawson and I spent most of the day on Saturday watching Christmas cartoons and movies. He seemed more interested in the cartoons than the movies, but did get in the Christmas spirit and even sang a couple of kids songs with his 'ole Granddaddy before heading back home.

For what it is worth....

 The Elba Tigers bounced back from a pair of early-week road losses to dominate Geneva on Friday night to even their record at 2-2. The Tigers had problems scoring points in the 42-34 loss to Straughn and the 49-46 loss to Luverne, but came out gunning against Geneva in a game played with a running clock in the fourth quarter due to the big Tiger lead. Elba hasn't found a true point guard yet and hasn't really dominated the game inside like many expected, but it is a long season and after four games I am sure both the players and coaches have learned a lot about what it will take to be a contender.

 The Elba Lady Tigers had a winless week as they lost to Straughn, Luverne and Geneva to see their record slip to 3-4. The Lady Tigers allowed 55 points to Straughn, 37 second half points to Luverne and 69 points to Geneva, and in girls basketball it will be hard to hang up a lot of wins giving up so many points. The Elba girls do play at a fast pace and can wear opponents down, but must start playing better defense if they hope to contend for a region tourney berth.

 It was another busy week across the area with all the teams taking to the court in early-season action. In boys play, Brantley got a big win over New Brockton and appears ready to settle in and start hanging up wins on their side of the ledger, while Kinston, Zion Chapel and New Brockton all found wins hard to locate. The Bulldogs have proven they can score, but must now prove they can win, while the Rebels are hanging tough and are the surprise team of the season, and the Gamecocks are getting roughed up just about every time they take the court in a disastrous season. Over with the girls, the Brantley Lady Bulldogs remained undefeated and ranked in the 'Top 10' in Class 1A with a couple of tough wins, while Kinston clobbered Opp and proved it can still win, Zion Chapel added a win over Wicksburg to its ledger, and New Brockton battled hard in all games, but failed to find a win.

 Elba High hosted a "B Team" basketball tournament over the weekend and taking home the first place plaque were the Zion Chapel Rebels. The Rebels claimed four wins in five games at the six-team tournament to improve their record to 12-2, and have Rebel fans believing that basketball may just be back up at Jack.

 In closing.... I actually watched at least a little of a couple of bowl games over the weekend and was pleasantly surprised. The game up in Montgomery has a big crowd and was won on the last play of the game, while the game in New Orleans was also fun to watch and brought back memories of the times we followed Troy to the bowl game. Hey, I might just watch a few more along the way, which isn't really saying a lot since Alabama, Troy and Auburn have yet to play, as well as a bunch of other SEC schools that need to carry the conference banner high against all the folks that are SEC-Haters!

Brantley to host holiday tourney

Brantley High School will be the pace to be this weekend for area basketball fans as seven boys teams and eight girls teams converge on the campus to compete in the annual Brantley Christmas Tournament.

The teams in the boys division include Straughn, Brantley, Zion Chapel, Highland Home, Elba, Luverne and Goshen, while competing in the girls division will be Brantley, Highland Home, Zion Chapel, Straughn, Luverne, Elba, Samson and Greenville.

"This is a good tournament because it is held before the Christmas holidays really begin and all the teams are guaranteed three games," said Elba Tiger coach William Moguel. "The more games we can get in before the area schedule kicks in is good for us, and this tournament includes a lot of very good teams that will all play hard and play to win. It is a tournament we enjoy playing in and look forward to getting on the court and going up against quality opponents."

"We need to play games to prepare for our area opponents," stated Elba

Lady Tiger coach Shaun Hammonds, "and we are looking forward to the challenge of playing three games in just two days. We will come into the tournament on a three-game losing streak, and need to get back to our winning ways and develop a personality. After seven games we have seen just about every style of play, and should be ready to take that next step and start looking like the team we know we can be."

Following is the tournament schedule:

Tigers pound Panthers 62-41

The Elba Tigers salvaged a busy week on the court with an impressive 62-41 win over the Geneva Panthers, Friday night at Enterprise Community College, to even their record at 2-2.

The Tigers jumped out to an early 4-0 lead after two free throws by Alex Wright and a basket by Richmon Singletary, only to see Geneva rally and grab its only lead of the night at 5-4 with 5:05 left in the first quarter. A put back by Wright with 3:41 remaining put the Tigers back on top 8-6, and behind the play of Charvez Hill and Trent Sanders the lead grew to 15-8 by the end of the stanza.

Elba's lead grew to 22-12 early in the second quarter on a 3-pointer by Seth Ware, and this time the Tigers never allow the Panthers to get back in the game as Ware and Hill added late baskets to put Elba in command at the half with a 31-16 lead.

Alex Wright sparked an early 6-0 Elba run to begin the second half that stretched the Tigers lead to 37-16, while a pair of 3-pointers by Logan Medlock sparked a 10-0 run that pushed the lead to 47-18 with 2:55 left in the third quarter.

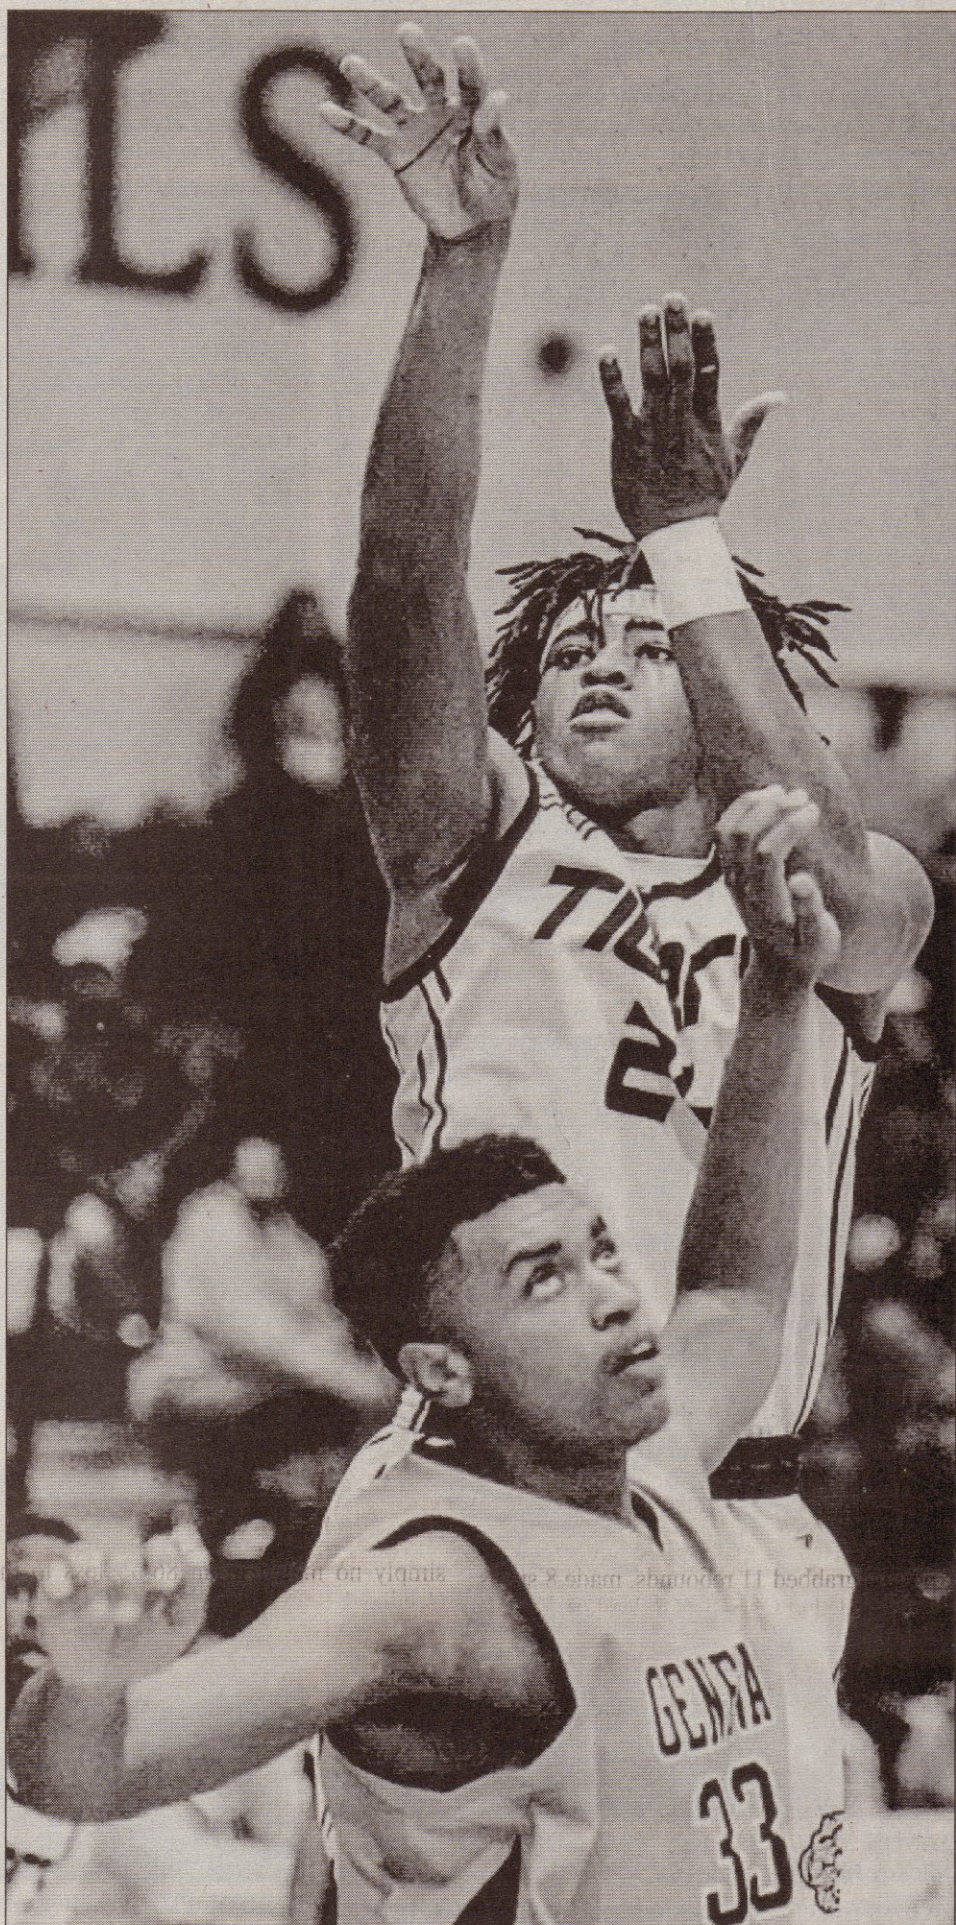

Geneva staged a late rally and then scored early in the fourth quarter to pull within 53-28, but the Tigers pushed their lead to 59-30 with 5:42 remaining on the clock and coasted in with the impressive 62-41 win.

Alex Wright scored 18 points and grabbed 16 rebounds to lead Elba, while Logan Medlock added 11 points and Richmon Singletary scored 10.

Elba drops two straight on the road

The Elba Tigers hit the road for two games early last week and struggled late in both outings as they lost to Straughn 42-34 and Luverne 49-46.

Following are highlights of both games:

Straughn 42 Elba 34

The Elba Tigers saw an early lead vanish and then lost their way to the goal in a 42-34 road loss to Straughn.

Logan Medlock drained a pair of 3-pointers in the opening quarter to help the Tigers jump out an early 13-9 lead, and while Alex Wright hit 3 of 4 free throws in the second quarter, the Tigers managed only one basket and at the half trailed 21-18. Medlock added two more buckets from behind the arc in the third quarter as the Tigers closed to within 29-27. However, the Tigers could never get back on top and dropped the low-scoring 42-34 decision.

Logan Medlock scored 13 points and Alex Wright added 11 to lead Elba.

Straughn (42): Peeples 12, Kelley 6, Cleland 8, Turner 14, Reynolds 2.

Elba (34): Ware 6, Singletary 4, Wright 11, Medlock 13.

Luverne 49 Elba 46

The Elba Tigers saw a late lead vanish in the game's closing seconds in a hard fought 49-46 loss to Luverne.

Richmon Singletary scored four first quarter points to help the Tigers jump out to an early 16-7 lead, while Alex Wright poured in 10 second quarter points to help Elba go in at intermission with a 29-22 advantage. Wright added four points in each of the final two quarters to lead the Tigers. However, Luverne grabbed its first lead of the night with less than 40-seconds left on the clock and held on to hand the Tigers a 49-46 loss.

Alex Wright scored 21 points and grabbed 18 rebounds to lead Elba.

Luverne (49): Brantley 6, Hamilton 6, Means 4, Oliver 2, Wilson 9, Ezell 16, Gregory 2, Mooneyham 4.

Elba (46): Roberson 5, Ware 2, Singletary 6, Wright 21, Medlock 3, Hill 9.

A'Maysia Whitfield poured in eight first quarter points as the Lady Tigers trailed only 14-13 after one quarter of play, but despite 3-pointers from Nina Williams, Sandra Lindsey and Whitfield, Straughn never lost its lead and at the half was on top 32-26. Elba missed 7 of 8 free throws in the third quarter and misfired on 7 of 13 charity tosses in the fourth quarter to allow Straughn to remain in command and hand the Lady Tigers the 55-46 loss.

A'Maysia Whitfield scored 16 points to lead Elba, while Kelsey Kelley led Straughn with 16 points.

WREATHS ACROSS AMERICA EVENTS HELD LAST SATURDAY IN COFFEE COUNTY

Expansion of wreath placing in the county a 'blast'

Last Saturday, Dec. 15, "Wreaths Across America" ceremonies were held locally at both the Enterprise City Cemetery and the Evergreen Cemetery of Elba.

After the ceremonies and before the laying of the Honor Wreaths, the crowds in attendance at both were treated to a "Rolling Thunder" supplied by Clanton's Battery. The traditional three-volley salute from the four cannons was augmented by a two-story high flame mortar blast.

Travis Parker, aka "The Wreath Guy", said the 4th Annual Wiregrass Wreaths Across America was a huge success.

"We placed over 1,000 Honor Wreaths at 13 local cemeteries," Parker said. "The larger ones were the Enterprise City Cemetery, the Elba Evergreen Cemetery, the Daleville Memorial Gardens, and the New Brockton City Cemetery. Nine other church or community cemeteries had wreaths laid in them, and I've already had requests to add four more cemeteries for next year."

He said the eventual goal of CoffeeCountyVeterans.org (CCV) is place Wreaths in December and flags on Memorial Day for each and every veteran's grave in the county.

"There are around 100 Coffee County cemeteries, so we have a long journey ahead of us," Parker said. "The ceremony has grown at a faster rate than I had expected when I started it here just four years ago with 18 wreaths at one cemetery. We had groups from several area towns help and 'adopt' a cemetery."

He said the Ozark and Daleville ROTC units, the Frontier Girls from Dothan, the Wiregrass Homeschool Junior Civitan Club, the Beta Club, and the Holloway Family were some of these groups.

Girl Scouts of Service Unit 923 presented two Honor Wreaths to the Military Order of the Purple Heart and Elba American Legion members representing the six branches of Service.

Enterprise Councilman Perry Vickers and Elba Mayor Mickey

During ceremonies held last Saturday, Dec. 15, at both the Enterprise City Cemetery and the Evergreen Cemetery of Elba, the crowds in attendance for the Wreaths Across America events were treated to a "Rolling Thunder" supplied by Clanton's Battery. The traditional three-volley salute from the four cannons was augmented by a two-story high flame mortar blast. The pictures shown here are from the event at the Evergreen Cemetery in Elba.

Murdock read Proclamations from their respective cities and placed the POW/MIA Wreaths on their respective stands.

An eighth Honor Wreath was started in Coffee County by the CCV for the Gold Star Families. Ken and Sally Conneway placed the wreath for their son in Enterprise, and Danny Jordan placed the one in Elba for his son.

"I'd like to especially thank the Wiregrass Sons of the American Revolution and the Elba American Legion Post 42 for their co-sponsoring with the Enterprise Civitan Club," Parker said. "The MOPH Chapter and Patriot Guard always jump in and help, along with the Girl Scouts. Billy Cotter and Heath Wrysodick added some valuable assistance as well."

In Enterprise, Parker said the ceremony also included dedication of a flagpole donated by the Enterprise WoodmenLife Chapter.

"This was the first ceremony in Elba, and the work and support of Jenny Reed, commander of the Elba American Legion, and the members of this group made it possible," Parker said. "I also appreciate Mayor Murdock taking the time to support this event."

Along with the wreaths, thank you cards made by students from local elementary schools also were placed at the gravesites of the veterans.

Thinking of you at Christmastime.
Wishing you peace, joy and good fortune always!
